

Privacy Policy

Developmental Pediatrics cares about protecting its client's privacy. In process of providing the services and products you have requested, we will collect, use and share certain information you have provided. The privacy policy explains what information we collect and how we use that information. The policy also explains how we protect the security and confidentiality of your information.

Collection of Information

We collect and retain information necessary for us to provide the products and services you requested. In that process we may collect non-public information from you as a result of: your completion of all initial patient information, history and insurance forms and questionnaires.

Confidentiality of Information

We do not disclose any non-public information about the client, either during or after your relationship with us, to anyone except as permitted by law, such as your insurance company, doctor's office or any other person or places explicitly approved on a release of information, in order to provide the services and products requested or to comply with applicable laws or regulations.

Internal Protection of Information

We restrict access to non-public personal information about the client to those employees who need to know that information to provide the services and products requested. We maintain physical, electronical and procedural safeguards to comply with federal regulations to safeguard this information.

Disclosure of Our Privacy Policy

We are sending you this Notice for informational purposes and may amend this Privacy Policy at any time and will update it as required.

I have received a copy of the privacy policy.

X _____ Date: _____

or

I have received and read my copy of the privacy policy and decline to receive a copy.

X _____ Date: _____